

The Book Every Victim Must Read...

One in four people experience some form of sexual abuse during their lives.

Tears and Fears* is the much needed Book which confronts this subject head on.

Whether the reader is a victim of sex abuse, has suffered a date rape or is an anxious parent concerned about chat room paedophiles and sexting, there are chapters on all of these subjects.

This well researched book also includes chapters on sexually transmitted diseases, depression, guilt, self harm, suicide and post traumatic stress, where the victim will find advice and reassurance.

Tears and Fears* includes an extensive list of helplines and contact details for charities and organisations who offer support around the World.
